COOKIE POLICY

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that websites visited by the user (i.e. websites or web servers operated by third parties) send to the user's terminal, where they are stored and then transmitted back to the same websites on the next visit.

What cookies are used by this website?

The website www.leaf.space (the "Website") uses technical (or necessary) and analytical cookies.

Technical (or necessary) cookies ensure normal browsing and use of the Website and do not require the user's prior consent.

Analytical cookies are used to collect and process statistical information in aggregate form on how the user uses the Website. We have activated mechanisms (such as IP address anonymisation) that make it impossible to directly and uniquely identify the user from the information collected through analytical cookies. The user's consent, also in relation to this type of cookies, is not necessary.

By clicking on "Customize" in the cookie banner, the user can, in any case, change the cookie settings by selecting the purposes for which he or she consents to the use of his or her personal data.

The detailed information on the cookies used by the Website (name of the cookie, who is providing it, functionality of the cookie, duration, how to disable it and type of cookie) can be found in the tables below and within the " Customize Consent Preferences" section accessible by clicking on "Customize" in the cookie banner.

How can the cookie settings be changed?

Cookies can be disabled by the user by changing the browser settings based on the instructions made available by the relevant providers at the links listed below.
- Internet Explorer
- Mozilla Firefox
- Google Chrome
- Apple Safari
- Opera

Disabling certain cookies may affect the functioning of the Website.

Where are data collected through cookies transferred?

Users' data collected through cookies will normally be transferred to countries within the European Economic Area (EEA). Should, however, such data be transferred to countries outside the EEA, we undertake to comply with the conditions and guarantees set out in Article 45 et seq. of the GDPR.

For any information not covered by the Cookie Policy and, in particular, as regards the identification of the persons to whom the data collected through cookies may be disclosed and the procedures for exercising rights, please refer to the Privacy Policy.

Changes to the Cookie Policy

We may review this Cookie Policy at our own discretion. Make sure to check the latest version available on the Website regularly.
